About Markfield

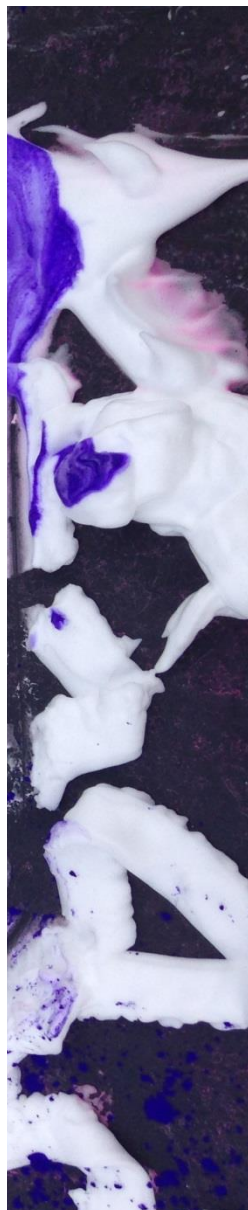

Markfield is an inclusive community hub in Tottenham where people can play, socialise and get information and support. We run holiday schemes for children and young people, where they can relax, have fun and choose activities they enjoy.

Markfield's well-trained staff are experienced in including children and young people with a very wide range of needs and disabilities.

Activities & facilities at Markfield include

- Huge adventure playground with tunnels, dens, swings & slides, bonfire pit, sandpit and zip wire
- Arts, crafts, textile, music and gardening and cooking activities
- Trampoline, football and basketball
- Split level soft play room, large hall, fully
- accessible changing room
- Trips to local parks, bowling, cinema, et

We can provide mini-bus transport to and from Markfield (places are limited).

Cost of play scheme

- £10 to £80 per day
The amount charged depends on your child's support needs and whether you have a 'short breaks' personal budget from the Local Authority.

Subsidised places

- A limited number of subsidised places are available – these are for children with additional needs who do not receive Local Authority funding.

How to book a place

- Contact Jamie Seaden (Play & Youth Service Manager)
Email: jseaden@markfield.org.uk
Telephone: 0203 667 5232
- We will then contact you to discuss your child's needs.
